

Student Exchange Support Program supported by JASSO 2022
ASEAN Biotechnology School
FrontierLab@OsakaU FYI 2022 (Scholarship for Short-term Study in Japan)

This program is a training program, and the main is a lab-study-program conducted in cooperation with the consortium consists of Thai top 4 universities (Mahidol U., Chulalongkorn U., Kasetsart U. and KMUTT) and top universities of ASEAN Countries (Vietnam, Philippines and Indonesia) (Commonly known as “SSSV Program”).

This SSSV Program is a student exchange program, which consists of a program that sends Osaka University graduate school students to ASEAN Universities and another program that accepts graduate students at ASEAN Universities to Osaka University.

Here, we introduce an acceptance program supported by “Student Exchange Support Program supported by JASSO 2022, ASEAN Biotechnology School, FrontierLab@OsakaU FYI 2022 (Scholarship for Short-term Study in Japan).

In this acceptance program, we have offered the most advanced Biotechnology research and lectures about biodiversity, intellectual property and usage of Biotechnology to build a Sustainable Industrial Society with International Center for Biotechnology and several laboratories of Department of Biotechnology at Osaka University Graduate School. Herewith, we aim to train students from ASEAN countries who join this program to be Japan experts with highly knowledge and international sense by offering Industrial Biotechnology knowledge and experiences of the most advanced manufacturing technology.

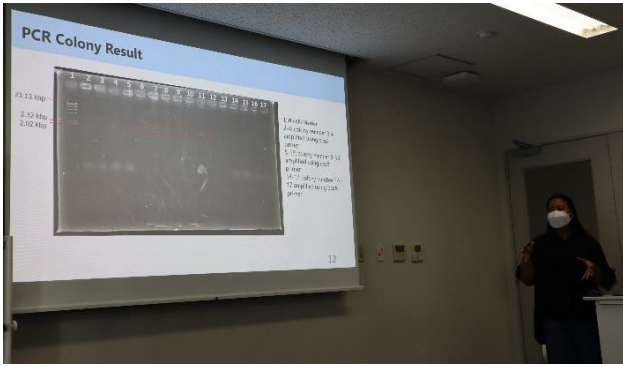

This year program has been held from November 7th to December 12th, 2022 with 10 students.
